Notice

It is hereby notified to all the non-teaching employees (permanent and casual employees) of Cooch Behar Panchanan Barma University that since 1st July 2024, services of the university have been severely hampered as non-teaching employees are not working at their respective offices rather they have been gathering in a dharna mancha at the entrance of the University building since 01.07.2024. The non-teaching employees did not seek permission from the authority for such kind of dharna. As per our service rule, all employees are liable to perform their respective jobs for the benefit of students, research scholars and of society in bigger perspective. I would like to request all the non-teaching employees to join their official duty by next working day; otherwise university authority may take administrative steps. It is my earnest request to all the non-teaching employees to perform their official duty for the benefit of students of Cooch Behar Panchanan Barma University.
